

Art Unit: 1794

It was agreed that the Bartz reference uses a general glass microsphere as the filler but does not specify the use of hollow glass microspheres. It is the examiners view that it would be obvious to use hollow glass microspheres fillers to form a light weight material. The examiner would entertain any evidence which the applicant may wish to provide that disputes the examiners position that it would be obvious to use any type of filler.